Metropolitan Bank Sponsors Fundraiser for the Women's Foundation for a Greater Memphis

(MEMPHIS, Tenn.) — Metropolitan Bank, along with Joseph, sponsored a fashion and trunk show benefiting the Women's Foundation for a Greater Memphis Aug. 21–23. Proceeds from the fashion show will be used to support local programs of the Women's Foundation that encourage philanthropy and foster leadership among women.

"Metropolitan Bank is committed to making an impact in our community, and we recognize the importance of the Women's Foundation in the Memphis area," says Phillip May, Metropolitan Bank's executive managing director in the Memphis office. "We were delighted to partner with Joseph to help raise funds for this respected organization."

The fashion event and fundraiser was held at Joseph in the Laurelwood Shopping Center and featured clothing by designer Hilton Hollis.

About the Women's Foundation for a Greater Memphis. A local nonprofit grant-making organization, the Women's Foundation for a Greater Memphis was established in 1995, and has awarded $2.8 million in grants to support 237 programs benefiting women in the greater Memphis area.
